OLD THE LEPEERS ARE GONE.

The Chinese Marchants New Escape Making Compulsory Contributions.

There is much rejoicing in Chinatown over the departure of the lepers, who have been in the habit of making their disgusting appearance during the elaborate festivities of a number of the Chinese New Year's feasts. Their presence was a very undesirable and demanding money, threatening to be useless unless was paid. Often they came when there were no festivities on hand, whenever they took a notion, and each time
